

MOPS 2016 Program

Friday, April 15

11:30 AM Lunch

12:00 PM Philip Robbins (University of Missouri - Columbia)

Title: More than a feeling: Towards an alternative dual-process account of moral judgment

Chair: Mike Dacey (Washington University in St. Louis)

1:30 PM Laura Franklin Hall (New York University)

Title: Why are some (natural) kinds historical and others not?

Chair: Richard Lauer (University of Missouri - Columbia)

3:30 PM (Leadership Auditorium in the Student Center) Keynote: Teddy Seidenfeld (Carnegie Mellon)

Title: Three Degrees of Imprecise Probability Theory

7:00 PM Dinner at Philip Robbins' house (catered by Buckingham Smokehouse)

Saturday, April 16

8:30 AM - Breakfast: Bagels and Coffee

9:00 AM Christopher Pearson (Southern Illinois University - Edwardsville)

Title: How Possibly Explanation in Biology: Lessons from Wilhelm His's 'Simple Experiments' Models

Chair: Paul Hamilton (University of Missouri - Columbia)

10:30 AM Armin Schulz (University of Kansas)

Title: Kin Selection, Multi-Level Selection, and Model Selection

Chair: Jon Burmeister (University of Missouri - Columbia)

12:00 PM Lunch

2:00 PM Yasha Rohwer (Oregon Tech)

Title: A New Approach to Scientific Explanation

Chair: Sarah Robins (University of Kansas)

3:30 PM Lauren Olin (University of Missouri - St. Louis)

Title: Laughing Animals

Chair: Sarah Malanowski (Washington University in St. Louis)

5:00 PM (Walt Disney Room in Memorial Union) Philippe Huneman (CNRS/Université Paris 1 Sorbonne)

Title: Natural selection as a cause and the causes of selection: the changing status of selectionist explanations

Chair: André Ariew (University of Missouri - Columbia)

7:00 PM Dinner at André Ariew's house (catered by Shakespeare's Pizza)